Hope you stopped by the annual plant and bake sale this morning held by the prestigious Gouverneur Garden Club in the pavilion of the municipal parking lot just off of Park Street.
They have been in this paper as of late celebrating 70 years of making the community bloom with color and devoted care.
On this past Wednesday, the "Green Thumb" gals were busy at the village park location sorting out this year's tributes to all things beautiful enhancing once again the feel of small town America.
Take the time to look around town to see what
